

“DUTY, HONOR, COUNTRY” VOCABULARY WORDS

This list of words can be found in the “Duty, Honor, Country” speech given by General Douglas MacArthur on this day in 1962.

Define each word . . . Use each word in a sentence . . . Circle each word in the “Duty, Honor, Country” speech . . . Ask your fellow students to use the words in a sentence . . . Decide to use one word in your “everyday language” today . . . Raise your hand every time you hear one of the words used by your teacher or parent today . . . Spell a word out on your driveway with sidewalk chalk.

All of these strategies will help build your vocabulary and your “wordpower.”
